PAY Your Arrears Immediately to avoid Disconnection,
Cash accepted as per DERC limit up-to 4000/- at Tata Power-DDL Collection Centers only

Sub: Notice of Disconnection under Section 56 (1) of The Electricity Act, 2003 against supply of electricity

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is to inform that there is an outstanding defaulted amount of Rs.7048.27 towards the electricity consumption charge as per bill for the month JUL-2025 against the above said connection. However the total outstanding dues as on date amount to Rs12090.00 including current demand.

Therefore a notice under Section 56(1) of the Electricity Act, 2003 is hereby given to you, requiring you to pay the defaulted amount along with current demand/s (if not paid within due date) in full within 15 days from the date of receipt of this notice, failing which we will be constrained to disconnect your electricity supply without any further notice and the supply shall remain disconnected until the entire defaulted amount (including up to date current demand & late payment surcharge) along with other sums such as reconnection charges @ Rs. 200.00 (along with GST) and Security Deposit charges wherever applicable, are to be paid to Tata Power-DDL. You may also please note that "No Part Payment" is acceptable.

This is clarified that this Disconnection Notice is being issued for your current default in making payment and it will not effect in any manner the disconnection order if any issued earlier neither extends any time line for the disconnection order if issued earlier.

In this context kindly note that in case of unauthorized reconnection of a disconnected supply of the above referred connection the same shall be punishable under Section 138 of the Electricity Act 2003 with imprisonment up to three years and / or with fine of upto Rs. 10,000/-, in addition to above said amount already due.

In case the amount as mentioned in the disconnection notice has been already paid and/or any stay order has been obtained from any Hon'ble Court/Learned Forum with respect to the said amount, the notice of disconnection be ignored and the concerned District office should be approached along with the copy of the paid bill/receipt and /or stay order of Hon'ble Court/Learned Forum immediately.
